GOODLETT & CO., Cotton Pactors of Long Experience and Abundant Capacity, at 252 Front Street.

These gentlemen have been at their present number on Front etreet just thirty-two years. As cotten factors, they have in that time advanced a great deal of money to planters, with which to produce their crops, and have sold many thousand bales of cotton.

After all this experience, it is reasons. After all this experience, it is reaconsble to suppose they are acquainted with the wants of the cot on planters. They are prepared to advance liberally, to fill orders in a satisfactory manner, and to sell cotton for all that can be assigned in this market. Their office. realized in this market. Their office and sampleroom are in an excellent location, convenient to all the buyers. Their cotton is stored and handled with great care, and goes to the buyer in as good shape as possible. Goodlett & Co. are among the reliable merchants who give satisfactory settle ments of all business intrusted to

F. BENSIECK'S Confectionery and Bakery, Mos. 94 and 96 Beale Street.

We direct special attention to the card of the film in today's paper. Mr. Bensicck's place of business is not surpassed by any establishment of the kind in the city. He has been in business on Beale street, a few doors west of his present superb quarters, ten or eleven years and during that time has built up an immense trade. His present stor has been buit and arranged expressly to give him every facility to conduct toe b kery, coolec-tionery and ice cream business, and a visit to his palatial quart rs will demonstrate to any one that he has every convenience and facility to prosecute his business most admirably.

P. M. STANLLY, Undertaker and Embalmer, 55 Madison Street.

We would direct the a'trn'ion of the public to this firm, which is prepared off I orders upon short notice, for burial caskets, me al'c, resewood, burbl mahegany, or waltu' cases. Mr. Stanley keeps a full stock of undertakers material at all times and its ever ready to fill the orders of undertakers in the interior, who wish anything in his line, up in the most reasonable terms. He is prepared to embalm the dead or direct funerals whenever his services are cesire'. Mr. "Phil" rerviers are restre'. Stanley has been a ci izen of Memphis and She'by county forly years, and during his long residence has mede many staunch friends and acquaintances who ho'd him in high esteem for his many manly and nobie virtues Orders by telegraph or telephone will receive promet attention.

VICTOR D. FUCHS. Presh Meats, Fish, Game, Oysters, Chickens - Table Supplies Generally.

Victor D. Fachs has lived in Mem-phis many years. He for a long time dealt in fish, game, oysters, etc. As his business increased he thought it advisable to open a mest market. His large house offered the best of quarters for the enterprise. Hasoon became famous as the establishment where the best of everything in his line was for sale. In warm and cold weather alike he had the best of fresh best, mutton, pork, as well as chickers and other supplies. He has all the facilities for the prompt delivery of goods, and is extremely careful with his eusplies. During the winter he sells vart quantities of cysters. Re all dealers, as well as city families, cannot buy their oysters at a better p'ace. All the choice art'cles to be expected at a first class market and game store can be had at the store of V. D. Fuchs, 39 and 41 Jefferson stree'.

M'GEHEE & WITESMAN, Grocers and Commission Merchants.

369 Maiu Street. This firm has recently opened with a superb stock of groceries, embrscing everything in their line, which they are prapered to sell at lowest prices, either retail or wholesale. The members of the firm are young gentlemen of experience in the business, and are full of pluck and industry, and are pushing their sales right along. They sell on commission for their country friends and solicit shipments of produce from them. Mesars. McGehee & Witesman have an excellent trade already, and their prompt attention to business and low prices will secure for the firm increased patronage throughout the coming business season. Give them a call.

Friedel, Reder & Co., Lumber Dealers.

The handling of lumber, doors, sash, blinds, moldings, shingles, laths and cedar posts is a live business in Memphis. The firm whose name appears at the head of this riticle does a large and prosperous business. large and prosperous business.
Thorough'y understanding their business and giving it their closest attention, it could not be otherwise. They pay especial attention to orders for oak and long leaved calls. long leaved yellow pine lumber, and fill orders at as low prices as any dealers in this city. Persons in the interior who contemplate building could not purchase the'r lumber of a more reliable firm than Friedel, Reder & Co., No. 370 Second atreet, corner of Bowdre Bros. & Co.

This firm of first class cotton factors have just changed their location to one of the most desirable points in the city—near the Cotton Exchange, convenient to buyers and in reoms well adapted to their busine s. The new location is 34 Ms dison stree', where they will be glad to meet all their old customers and many new ones. Bowdre Bros. ratk with the solid, substantial business man of the city, and have the good will of all who know them. They advance liberally, give clore attention to the interests of those who intrust their business to then, and deserve what they are receivinga very large business as cott n factors.

Frank Schuman.

This experienced and competent dealer in guns, fishing tackle and sparismen's supplies, has recent'y been improving his store, No. 412 Main street, and his stock is now very attract vely arranged. It embraces all first class guar, and fishing tackle to great var.e.y. Mr. Schuman gives special at ention to repairing.

Woodruff & Oliver

Are handling some of the superior makes of carriages and bugg es, of which they have an excellent variety, at No. 209 M dn street. They also have a fine a sortment of saddles and harness. They have been in the business long enough to know what is be.t. Their g ods can be relied on. They will be pleased to walt on their old customers and lots of new ones.

M. GAVIN & CO.,

Wholesale Grocers and Cottor Factors-The Leading Cash House, The senior member of this house has been selling groceries in Memphis many years, and is one of the best known men on Front street. He belongs to the progressive citizens who have made this a great market. His partners are all first class business men, all up to the requirements of the times. Each depar ment has an excellent man at its head. It is one of the best organized establishments in the South. Gavin & Co. are the pioneers in the cash business as wholesale grocers. With a large capital, successfully handled by those who know how to buy, this firm can always supply the wards of the manual supply the wants of the retailers, from a pound of tobacco to a well selected stock of groceries. They deal largely in liquers, and fill orders from the bonded warehouses. In each branch of their business they have facilities that enable them to supply customers at a little lower rate than is generally charged by the wholesale dealers. Stap e articles can be obtained at their house a little below Merchants' Ex-change quo a jors. This is because they make no bad debts, bandle such large quantities, and always beer in mind that competition is very lively and merchants must be satisfied with small profit. There are numerous retail groce's who have been purchasing from this house for many years, and expect to continue with it to the end of their days. Gavin & Co. rank with the best as cotton factors, having all necessary errangements for storing and keeping the staple in good coudition. They are men in whom the buyers have confidence. Go to their immens houses, 232 and 234 Front street, look at their girch and con will street, look at their s'ock, and you will become a customer.

T. J. GRAHAM, Dealer in Lime, Cement, Plaster and Fire Brick-Tilling a New Feature of His Business.

As dealer in the articles first mentioned in this beading Mr. Graham has been very success'ul. Besides sel ing much of the material for buildings, he determined to d-al in decorative material. He made arrangements for handling tilling from the best works in the country, and in this, too, he is proving very succeesful. For flooring there is nothing so pretty and rub-tan islastiling. He has a cored the rervices of experienced men to do the rervices of experienced men to do the work, and has given raisfaction to all for whom he has filled order. In lime, coment plaster and pipes he has ample capacity to supply all orders at the very lowest proces. He is very careful to deliver all goods in the best possible condition. In ordering these goods remember the tile flooring, for there is nothing requiring the same amount of money that will so greatly concribute to the beauty of a home or a business house. His number is 316 a business house. His number is 316 Front street.

Cunningbam's Shop, Corner of Monroe and DaSo o s ree's, is the place to have farm and spring wagons, drags and carts built to order. Good workmen are employed and the best of meterial is used. General blacksmithing is done in a thoroughly workmanlike menter. Carriage pairing is made a specialty, and work in this line always proves satisfactory. This shop has been in existence many years, and st it a number of the best wagons and tracks in the city have been built. If you went a good new agon or an old one repaired, go to Cunningham's.

The I riddy House. This hotel receives its share of patronage from the public. Mr. J. H.

Priddy, the proprietor, is very attentive to his gasts and conducts his house in a homelize way. The fare is excellent. H's cooks know how to prepare the food and do not fail to do it right. Persons who visit the city the coming fall and winter, and desire to stop at a house where they can have good iare, polite attention, at the most reasonable rates, should register at the "Priddy House."

B. J. Semmes & Co.

These gentlemen have been mannfecturers and wholesale dealers in liquors so long that they are well and favorably known to all the retail liquor dealers in the Memphis district, besides many at a great distance away. At their distilleries they make some of the best liquors known. They import largely of fine wines and brandles and carry a large stock. They can supply retail stocks on short notice. All who use liquors will find something to suit them at the store of B. J. Semmes & Co.

Alston, Crowell & Co. For several years this firm has been making large sales of hay corn, oate, bran, chop feed, oil meal, lime, cement, plaster, building and fire brick. They are located at No. 1 Howard's row. They give close attention to their business, fill orders promptly, and they can be relied on to furnish just the articles ordered. It is a firm of clover business men, who understand that competition is lively and of clever business men, who under-stand that competition is lively and that gra'n dealers must sell at very low prices.

E. M. Apperson & Co.

As grecers, cotton factors and com-mission merchants, this firm is prepared to give satisfaction to all who want to buy groceries from them or to sell cotton through their house. The senior member is one of the oldest merchants in Memphis. The junior member, Mr. Quigley, has been on Front street a good many years, and is a merchant of first class ability. They will advance liberally, are prepared to handle cotton carefully, and to fill orders promptly.

Insurance.

The Memphis City Fire and General Itsu ance Company is one of those that have done a good business during the past year. It does a general fire and marine business, and has a paid up capital of $250,000. Its president, Napoteon Hill, is one of our most enterprising busine a men, popular with all, and na cashier, Henry J. Lynn, is favorably known to all. Dealing with a strong c meany, officered by such men, you may expect clever treat-

Orgill Bros. & Co. This famous old house is s'ill handling hardware in great quantities. Besiderall classes of light and heavy hardware, it sels cotton g as and pres es, iteam engines, b liers, en-givers' tools, cotton scales, etc. Planters and re'ail dea'ers cannot send

Dave Kaufman, Importer of wines, liquors and cigars, No. 45 Madison s'reet, gives especial attention to country orders, which be orders to a firm that is more reliable or seils goods cheaper.

Subscribe for the "Appeal"

F. A. JONES & CO.,

Live Stock Commission Merchants, and Proprietors of the Immense Stable and Hule Yard, Nos. 61 to 75 Monroe Street.

The two young gentlemen associated in this big enterprise are well known to all the livestock men who .come here to make sales, as well as to those who occasionally buy horses. Albert Jones and Billy Forrest were raised in Memphis, have been in their present buisness for a long time, and know how to manage it. Their stable is an immense one, built according to their own orders, given as a result of a knowledge of the wants of the stock trade. If you want to buy or sell horses, mules or stock go and see F.A. Jones & Co., and you can be accommodated. They now have on hand be-tween 100 and 200 brood mares, which they will sell at very low figures. Farmers, here is a chance for you. This firm advances lib-rally on consignments, fills orders promptly, and guarantees satisfaction.

Grabam, Coussins & Co .- Hardware. The hardware trads of our city is looming up largely. The volume of this branch of business has increased each year for several years past. of the foremost houses in this trade is the staunch house of Grabam, Coussins & Co. All the members of the firm are young, energetic and full of vim. They carry a large stock, embracing everything in the bardware lice, agricultural implements, cutlery, guns, gum and leather b lting. They are sgents for the Avery & Sons plows, Macceale & Urban safes, and Thos. Bradford & Co's wheat and grist wil's This firm pushes its business in all the country tributary to the city and, keeping seven men, on the roal constantly, leave no section of it neg-lected. For square dealing and low prices in hardware go to Graham, Coussins & Co., No. 325 Main streets where you will find an immense stock and polite attention.

Domestic Sewing Machine, With its superior attachments and accessories, constitutes the most per-fect and reliable appliance for tre production of all kinds of needle from the lightest to the heaviest fat-rics; from the plainest to the most elegant; and from the simplest to the most elaborate, practical or decorative art work. Simple, reliable, progressively practical. An imitator of none, but imitated by all. It stands on its excellence entitles it to receive. No. 262 Second street.

J. G. Schmidt & Son Are loca'ed at 345 Main a reet, where they deal extensively in gurs, ammenition, fishing tackle, building hard-ware, electric bells and ammunition. Special attention is given to repairing. The senior member is one of the most thorough machinis s is the city. He is one of those who know how work should be done, and sees that it is done properly. Those wenting guns and fishing tackle will find Schmidt & Son clever and reliable dealers.

R. Kupferschmidt,

At 224 Main street, has been in the gun bosinees many years. H's large new stock has been selected with a special regard to the wants of the people about Memphis. Guns, ammunition and fishing tackle are there in great quantities, and all articles are offered at low prices. He employs first class gunsmiths, and all repairing the ut

S. Slager, Tailor,

At the corner of Second and North Court streets, is now receiving new goods for fall and winter. Mr. Sisger is an experienced tailor and an enterprising man. He carries great quantities of cloths, cu's them correctly, makes suits as neat and strong as it is possible to make them, and gives rat-infection to his many customers. He employs good wo kmen and sells suits just as low as is possible. Go and in-spect the excellent stock that is now coming in. If not decidedly hard to please you will find goods and prices there that will surprise you.

Young & Bro.

These veleran booksellers and stationers are sill at No. 243 Main street, where they have a fine stock of stationery and books. They deal largely in artists' materials, Lacroix mineral colors, tube paines, canvas, They are the leading scationers, and do all in their power to accommo date their customers.

Friedman Brothers.

Th's firm is one of those whose ef forts have made M mphis a wholesale boot and shoe market. With a large capital, a number of first-class traveling ralesmen, and careful buyers in the East, Friedman Brothers can re'l boots and shoes to country dealers at each figures as will justify them in making their purchases here. The house here is doing a very large business. Those who give it one order are likely to remain with it, for everything they do proves to be correct and buy ers are never deceived in the quality

CHANCERY SALE -0F-

REAL ESTATE.

No. 555, R. D.—Chancery Court of Shelby county.—State of Tennessee vs. Sarah Morrison et al.

By ritue of an interlectuory decree for sale entered in the above cause on the sth day of December. 1855. M. B. 59, page 321, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder. In front of the Clerk and Master's office, courthouse of Shelby county, Memphis, Tennessee, on Saturday, September 25, 1886, within legal hours, the following described property, situated in Sheiby county, Tornessee to wit:

N. % lot 54, fronting 24% feet on the east side of Chickness street, ya depth of 145% feet, said lot being 74% feet couth of Winchester street. Sold as property of the unknewn lefts of J. A. Geskett.

Part of country lot 52%, fronting 37 feet on the north side of Auction street, by a depth of 145% feet. Sold as property of Sarah Morrison and others.

Lot 170, fronting 37% feet on the east side of Main street, by 145% feet deep, 74% feet nerth of Auction street.

Terms of Sale—On a credit of six months, note bearing interest, with security, required: lien retained: redemntion barred.

This 17th day of August, 1856.

S. I. McDOWELL, Cierk and Master.
By E. Coleman, Deputy C. and M.
F. H. & C. W. Weiskell, solicitors.

F. H. & C. W. Heiskell, solicitors.

EXEALTRI IN WEALTH,—DR. E. C.

WEST, NERVS AND BRAIN TREATMENT, a guaranteed specific for Hysteris. Distincts, Convulsiones, Fits, Nervous Neuralgia, Headsobe, Nerve. Prostration, caused by the use of alcohol or tobacco; Wakefulness, Mantal Depression, Setteming of the Brain, resulting in insanity and less ing to misery, decay and death; Premature old Ago, Barranness, Loss of Power in either ext Involuntary Losses and Sparmatorrhea, cause is by over-exertion of the brain, self-abuse or overindulgence. Each box contains one month's treatment. Il a box, or six boxes for 25, sent by mail prepaid, on receipt of price. We quarantee hix Boxes to cure any case. With each order received by us for six boxes, accompanied with 21, we will send the purchaser our written guarantee to refund the money if the treatmont does not effect a cure. Guarantees issued only by a REMERRY & CO., Druggists, Memphis, Tenn.

Vholesale Grocers & Cotton Factors. 269 Front Street, Memphis, Tenu.

Cotton consigned to us will have our careful attention. We carry at all times a well-Staple & Fancy Greceries, Wines, Liquers, Tebacco & Cigars,

And will sell as Low as the Lowest S. P. BOWDRE,

COTTON FACTORS,

No. 34 Madison Street, : Memphis, Team

M.C. Pearce & Co.

Cotton Factors & Commission Merch'ts,

No. 276 FRONT STREET, MEMPHIS, TENN. Cotton Warehouse-Nos, 88 and[90, Union Street

LIVERMORE FOUNDRY AND MACHINE COMPANY. FOUNDRY & MACHINE DEP'T, 160 to 174 Adams St., Memphis

Botler tres Hoop, Bane Sheet Iron law-Mills, Grist-Mills' House Fronts & Building Work, General Bepairs.

IRON & RAILWAY SUPPLY DEP'T, 226 and 228 Second St. (Successors in this lapariment to JOHN MANOGUE.)

COTTON FACTORS. Mcs. 356 and 358 Front Street...... Memphis Tenn

Corner Adams and Second Sts.

WE DESIRE TO CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO OUR LARGE STOCK OF PINIS HEB MARRIE. We are prepared to furnish new work from latest designs on short notice. ALL WORK GUARANTEED TO BE FIRST CLASS

In every respect and to give entire satisfaction. We solicit your patronage and request that you call, examine our stock, prices, etc., fore purchasing elsewhere.

D. T. PORTER.

Cotton Factors

WHOLESALE GROCERS. WO. 200 FRONT STREET. : MEMPHIS TENN

J. A. BAILEY & CO., PLUMBERS:

336 Second Street, Memphis.

A LARGE AND COMPLETE STOCK OF PLUMBERS, GAS AND STEAM FITTERS Materials, Pumps, Drive Wells, Iron, Lead and Stone Pipe, Gas Fixtures, Globas. Etc.

HILL, FONTAINE & CO.

Cotton Factors and Wholesale Grocers 296-298 Front St., Memphis, Tenn.

HILL, FONTAINE & CO. Cotton Factors, Commission Merchants,

No. 116 South Main St., St. Louis.

G. W. TOMLINE NEW CARRIAGE FIRM.

Tomlin & Benjes, 179 Main St., Memphis.

Offer special inducements in Open Bussies of our own make, at 865; Top husgies of our own make, at 8120. All work warranted. Call before you buy. Having disressed of our entire stock of Vehicles and the Manufacturing Depart-ment to Messrs. TOMLIN & BENJES, we bespeak for them a continuance of the paironage so lone extended to us. CARRIAGE & HARDWARE COMPANY

JOHN A. DENIE, Manufacturer of Alabama Lime,

PORTLAND CEMENT, ROSEDALE CEMENT, LOUISVILLE CEMENT, PLASTER PARIS, HAIR and FIRE BRICK, Etc. SEWER PIPE. FLUE LININGS, OHIMNEY TOPS, LAWN VASES, 352 FRONT STREET, MEMPHIA TENE.

John S. Sullivan. Thon. Gark. I. GAVIN CO.

Wholesale Grocers, Cotton Factors And Commission Merchants, 232 and 234 Front St., Memphis, Tenn.

METWICH ADAMS AND JETTERSON,
MINI. S. SELECT denotes his whoto time to the weightpe and sale of all Cotton entrusted to our charge. Cotton Warehouse. It Washington street.

Woods & Swoope, Buggies, Wagons and Harness,

NANCE COTTON PRESS, BARBOUR GINS,

Steam Engines. Machinery of All Descriptions, No. 332 SECOND ST MEMPHIS, TENN.

M. JONES, President. IW. D. F. SAWRIE, Secretary and Treasurer.

MANUFACTURERS OF THE "MAGNOLIA BRAND"

36 38 and 40 Jefferson Street. DIRRCTORS

COTTON FACT'RS Old Stand, No. 9 Union St., Memphis.

Saddlery, Carriages Buggies, 209 MAIN STREET, : : MEMPHIS, TENN.

AVERY GIN CO.

MANUFACTURES OF Feeders, Condens'rs W. A. Smith's Pat. Separator. -AGENT Eagle Eclipse Huller Gins,

Plain 10 Inch Gin, and SOUTHERN STANDARD PRESS. Price at Factory, 8100 and 8110. ALLISON SEED COTION CLEANERS. All kinds of Gins Repaired. Special Discount to the Trade. Ga

Fulmer, Thornton & Co

Cotton Factors, Wholesale Grocers. No. 306 Front street. : Memphis, Tenne

E. WITZMANN Co.

Wholesale Dealers and Publishers, Music House

Sole Agents for the following First-Class Instruments: STEINWAY AND KNABE PYANOS---Kranich & Bach, Gabler, and Wheelock. ORGANN --- Clough & Warren, and Smith American. BET A NEW 7-OCTAVE PIANO FOR 8190, TO Write for Catalogue. Nos. 221 and 223 Second Street, Memphis.

Doors, Sash, Blinds, Molding, Lumber, Lath and Shingles, Florring, Ceiling and Cedar Posts,

KENTUCKY LOCATED AT PARMDALE P. O., FRANKLIN CO., September 6, 1886, under more fav rable auspices than for twenty years. The Superintendent and Faculty give undivided attention during all hours of every day to the gov-ernment and instruction of the pupils, all of whom are or-INSTITUTE ganized into one family. Before placing your son elecwhere, send for Catalogue and Circular of Information to ROBT. D. ALLEN Superintendent.

KELLY, ROPER & REILLY,

Grocers & Cotton Factors.

No. 392 Main Street, Gayoso Block.

AND TRUST COMPANY.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES. MICHAEL GAVIN, THOMAS BOXLE JOHN W. COCHRAN, SOL COLEMAN, WM. RATZENBERGER, Deposits received in sums of $1 and upward, and interest allowed on same Semiannually.

The buy and sell local investment Bonds and Securities generally, pay taxes, act as trustees, and, in general, execute any financial business requiring a safe and responsible agent.

We issue drafts, in sums to suit purchasers, on all parts of Europe.

We have a commodious Vault for the deposit of valuables, which is at the service of our customers. Free of Charge.

D. P. HABDEN, President.

EWD. GOLDSMITH. Woe-President.

JAMES NATHAN, Cashler.